

Yolanda Perez-Rivera, Professor, Counselor Emeritus, World Culture Club of Central Pennsylvania Board Member - Program Development/Public Relations, was nominated to be honored at the 2016 Annual Torch of Global Enlightenment Awards banquet sponsored by The World Affairs Council of Harrisburg.

Each year, The World Affairs Council of Harrisburg honors individuals and organizations that have demonstrated the highest ideals of tolerance, appreciation of diverse cultures, peoples, languages and lands, and promotion of global understanding. Seen here with Pedro A. Cortés, current Secretary of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and past speaker at the World Culture Club of Central Pennsylvania, Gloria Vazquez Merrik, President of the Latino Hispanic American Community Center, and Vlada Prymak, President of the WCC of Central PA.